

BRIAN HEASLEY

Brian serves as 24-7 Prayer's International Prayer Director, traveling extensively around the globe inspiring & teaching on prayer and mission. He is a global ambassador for Thy Kingdom Come, an initiative of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Brian, and his wife Tracy, are long term trailblazers within the 24-7 prayer movement with years of experience in local church and pioneer missions. They pioneered the work of 24-7 Prayer in the party area of Ibiza, Spain, where they lived for 8 years, developing rhythms of prayer and mission & with a heart to bring about change in a place the British press once described as Sodom and Gomorrah. They are passionate about prayer, mission & justice with a heart for leading in a way that is both sustainable and life giving rooted in a rhythm of devotional and prayerful responsiveness. They have been married over 27 years & have two adult sons.

HANNAH AGOMO

Hannah serves as the Next Gen Pastor at New City Church in Des Moines, where she leads the Next Gen Ministries team as they serve ages 0-18 within New City. Hannah has a passion for being part of raising up the next generation to know, love and serve Jesus. She is also passionate about the Church's important role to partner with families in helping them disciple the children and teens God has placed within their care. Hannah is humbled to be part of this important Kingdom work in a full-time ministry capacity.

Hannah has been married to her loving and servant-hearted husband, Obi, for three years, and they are blessed with their son, Malakai, who is the joy of their lives. As a family they are passionate about social and racial justice and enjoy watching sports and spending time with extended family in their free time.

DAVID MCBRIDE

David is 37 years old and has been married to Nicola for 14 years. They have four children: Daniel (13), Joshua (10), Reuben (7) and Sarah (4).

David's family is his priority, after Jesus. He works full-time for a Christian ministry called Drop Inn Ministries, whose motto is to bring Hope, Help and Healing to a Hurting world. The ministry does this mainly through feeding the hungry and educating through programs around the world, currently in more than 30 countries.

David's calling and passion in life is to be a forerunner for the Kingdom of heaven, and he wants to inspire others to passionately pursue all that Jesus has for them and in them. He loves to pioneer new things and release others to discover the life of fullness Jesus talks about in John 10:10.
